Christmas Break

The last session before we break for Christmas is Friday 11 December. The first session back in 2010 is on Tuesday 5 January (see below for Monday's improver's class).
Happy Christmas and a wonderful New Year to everybody!!

Changes to Adult Improver Classes

These drop-in classes are changing to a more structured series of 5-week courses, focusing on one or two aerial disciplines. You must book your place – you can't drop in any more. More details under "Aerial Training".

Circus Stories ★

SATURDAY 13 February 2010
4pm and 7pm

Bringing Circus bang up to date, Circus Stories is an awesome mix of theatre, harness-counterweight, silks and dance trapeze, all fused inventively with digital technology, animation and video. A genuine and startling insight into the hearts and minds of young people, Circus Stories recalls playground adventures, peculiar dreams, and friendships lost and found. Hugely-skilled Brighton & Hove Youth Circus regularly represent the UK and devise an original circus theatre show every year.

Pavilion Theatre, New Road, Brighton www.brightondome.org
Tickets £6, children £4: Book online or call 01273 709709

Fred Deb Week!! @ Sussex Uni

14-19 December 2009

Gravity & Levity are hosting these aerial fabric (or silks) classes taught by internationally renowned aerialist Fred Deb. This is an amazing opportunity as Fred rarely works in the UK. She has an in depth understanding of aerial fabric technique & teaches with an extraordinary clarity. To book a place or ask any questions please contact; Lindsey Butcher lbut@hotmail.com

Half Term Circus Performance School

15, 16, 17 Feb 2010 @ Brighton Dome (8-12 yrs)

Learn loads of amazing circus skills like Trapeze, Silks, Hula-Hoop, Juggling, Diablo, Clowning and Acrobalance, then show off your new skills in a circus performance showcase on the last day!
Led by The Circus Project, who have over 10 years experience of working in youth circus, the circus school is a creative, non-competitive environment, where kids feel free to experiment and everyone is a star.
